

Bus rapid transit, multimodal connections, and urban redevelopment in Virginia's Capital City

Learn about Richmond's efforts to develop and implement a regional transit vision, including field visits of the new bus rapid transit line and changing land uses, on the 2017 RTA Leadership Briefing and Tour.

Briefing and tour topics:

- Pulse Bus Rapid Transit line
- Frequent bus network redesign
- Bike share
- Urban redevelopment, land use
- Bicycle, pedestrian, trail connections
- Urban parks and recreational tourism
- Higher speed rail Richmond – Raleigh
- Tech innovation and smart corridors

Attendees will meet and hear from several agencies serving central Virginia, including the City of Richmond, Greater Richmond Transit Company, Virginia Department of Rail and Public Transportation, and the Virginia Department of Transportation, along with business and elected leaders.

The tour begins 10 a.m. Tues. Nov. 28 in Richmond and ends by 3 p.m. on Wed. Nov. 29 in Richmond.

Registration – $595

Includes: One-night hotel stay, ground transportation in greater Richmond, lunch and dinner reception on Tues., breakfast and lunch on Wed., conference materials, and excellent information, field visits and networking. Travel to Richmond is not included. Space is limited. Deadline to register is Oct. 20.

Event Sponsor – $999

Features: Company name recognition on event webpage, in promotional emails, and on tour agenda, plus verbal recognition during the tour. RTA Sustaining Gold, Gold, Silver, and Bronze members receive appropriate logo or name recognition as RTA major investors.

For more information, visit letsgetmoving.org/tour
Questions? Contact natalie@letsgetmoving.org, 919.664.7062